Subject: OLEM Tribal Friday news roundup - Week of June 17-21

Hello all

Please enjoy this week's OLEM Tribal Friday News Roundup. Feel free to pass along to your tribal colleagues.

Happy Summer Solstice and I hope you have a great weekend!

Today's Friday News Roundup Includes Information on:

1. NARPM Presents "Stand and Deliver Effective Presentations"
2. Funding Opportunity - FY 2019 Hazardous Waste Management Grant Program for Tribes
3. Introduction to Spill Prevention, Control, and Countermeasure Regulation (SPCC) Webinar for Tribes
4. UST Compliance Training for Owners/Operators
5. Oneida's UST Boot Camp Workshop

6. EPA's Contaminated Site Cleanup Information (CLU-IN) website and newsletter
7. Joy Harjo is named US Poet Laureate. She's the first Native American to hold the title

OLEM Topics

1. NARPM Presents "Stand and Deliver Effective Presentations" - July 10, 2019, 1:00PM-3:00PM EDT (17:00-19:00 GMT) - This webinar will provide participants with guidelines on how to make better presentations to the public, their peers, or management. The webinar will help to improve your presentation skills and provide you with tools and techniques to be an interesting and effective presenter. The webinar is intended to help participants increase their comfort in public speaking, control and connect with their audience, handle audience participation, and ultimately deliver the message and take-away points of training courses they are planning to instruct. The webinar will teach participants how to manage nerves, voice, gestures, transitions, visual aids, and content. The webinar also addresses how to manage the audience to include difficult participants, the solicitation of questions, and the response to questions and will include techniques for adapting to diverse audiences. For more information and to register, see <https://clu-in.org/live>.

Solid/Hazardous Waste

2. Funding Opportunity - FY 2019 Hazardous Waste Management Grant Program for Tribes - The competitive announcement for EPA's FY 2019 Hazardous Waste Management Grant Program for Tribes (EPA-OLEM-ORCR-19-02), which provides financial assistance to federally-recognized tribes or intertribal consortia for the development and implementation of hazardous waste programs and for building capacity to address hazardous waste management in Indian country, has been posted on the Office of Land and Emergency Management's Grants and Funding Page. To access the competitive announcement, please use the following link: <https://www.epa.gov/grants/fy-2019-hazardous-waste-management-grant-program-tribes>. In addition, the competitive announcement has been published on Grants.gov. You can view the announcement at: <https://www.grants.gov/web/grants/view-opportunity.html?oppId=317239>. The closing date for submittal of applications is August 1, 2019.

Emergency Response

3. Introduction to Spill Prevention, Control, and Countermeasure Regulation (SPCC) Webinar for Tribes - Tuesday, June 25, 2019 from 12:00 PM to 4:00 PM (EDT). The webinar will acquaint participants with the tools and resources available to assist tribes in understanding the scope and implementation of the SPCC regulation, the EPA inspection process, spill notification and response. The registration page for the SPCC for Tribes webinar can be found here: <https://www.epa.gov/oil-spills-prevention-and-preparedness-regulations/webinar-introduction-spcc-tribes>. Instructional material will:
  - a. Acquaint participants with the tools and resources available to assist tribal environmental programs, elected government officials, and tribal members in understanding the scope and implementation of the EPA Oil Program and SPCC regulation.
  - b. Include a discussion of Waters of the United States definition and applicability to regulated facilities.
  - c. Discuss the EPA inspection process.

Underground Storage Tanks

4. UST Compliance Training for Owners/Operators - July 16-17, 2019- Wild Horse Pass Conference Center, Chandler, AZ. See attached for more information.
5. Oneida's UST Boot Camp Workshop – Source University Campus Arlington, TX - July 16-18, 2019 - This "no tuition" workshop will provide in depth detail and hands on experience in assessing, inspecting and evaluating all facets of UST system installation and operation. The Institute for Tribal Environmental Professionals is offering limited travel assistance. Please indicate on the On-line Registration link that you will be requesting that assistance. Register On-line By July 1, 2019 at http://www7.nau.edu/itep/main/Training/training\_waste. See attached agenda and flyers for more information.

CLU-IN

6. EPA's Contaminated Site Cleanup Information (CLU-IN) website and newsletter - provides information about innovative treatment and site characterization technologies while acting as a forum for all waste remediation stakeholders. Check out the site: <https://clu-in.org/> and sign up for their newsletter: <https://clu-in.org/techdirect/>.

Other EPA Program Areas

7. Joy Harjo is named US Poet Laureate. She's the first Native American to hold the title - Librarian of Congress Carla Hayden appointed Joy Harjo as the 23rd Poet Laureate Consultant in Poetry to the Library of Congress on June 19, 2019. Joy Harjo is the first Native American poet to serve in the position—she is an enrolled member of the Muscogee Creek Nation. She was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma, on May 9, 1951, and is the author of eight books of poetry—including Conflict Resolution for Holy Beings (W. W. Norton, 2015); The Woman Who Fell From the Sky (W. W. Norton, 1994), which received the Oklahoma Book Arts Award; and In Mad Love and War (Wesleyan University Press, 1990), which received an American Book Award and the Delmore Schwartz Memorial Award. Her next book of poems, An American Sunrise, will be published by W. W. Norton in fall 2019. Harjo has also written a memoir, Crazy Brave (W. W. Norton, 2012), which won the 2013 PEN Center USA literary prize for creative nonfiction, as well as a children's book, The Good Luck Cat (Harcourt, Brace 2000) and a young adult book, For a Girl Becoming (University of Arizona Press, 2009). <https://www.loc.gov/poetry/laureate.html>
